SEARCH WARRANT

Section 6 of the Search and Surveillance Act 2012

To every constable, and every authorised officer warranted by the Commissioner of Police under section 24 of the Policing Act 2008 to exercise any search powers under the Search and Surveillance Act 2012.

1. I have received an application under section 6 of the Search and Surveillance Act 2012 for a warrant to search a place situated at:

- LAKE HOROWHENUA DOMAIN, LEVIN, HOROWHENUA DISTRICT.

2. That application was made in writing, and the truth and accuracy of its contents have been confirmed to me.

3. I am satisfied:

(a) that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the offences of:

- Burglary under section 231(1)(a) of Crimes Act 1961, and in respect of which section 6 of the Search and Surveillance Act 2012 authorises an application for a search warrant, has been committed;
- Escapes Lawful Custody under section 120(1)(c) of Crimes Act 1961, and in respect of which section 6 of the Search and Surveillance Act 2012 authorises an application for a search warrant, has been committed;
- Recieves Property under section 246 & 247 of Crimes Act 1961, and in respect of which section 6 of the Search and Surveillance Act 2012 authorises an application for a search warrant, has been committed;
- Wilful Damage under section 11(1)(a) of Summary Offences Act 1981, and in respect of which section 6 of the Search and Surveillance Act 2012 authorises an application for a search warrant, has been committed;

(b) and that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the search of the specified place will find evidential material in respect of the offences specified above, namely:

- Blue paint (matching the paint used on Rowing Club building) and painting accessories with blue paint on them

Received 28/7/2015 C88006

- An area where blue paint has been cleaned up from brushes / roller
- Padlocks – damaged during burglaries
- Shoes / boots with tread matching Appendi
- Bolt cutters
- Pliers
- Trailer, single axle, with plywood deck, metal frame sides painted white, registration Y323L.

4. This warrant authorises you at any time that is reasonable:

- (a) to enter and search the specified place for the specified evidential material;
- (b) to seize any of the specified evidential material, or anything else found in the course of carrying out the search or as a result of observations at the specified place, if you have reasonable grounds to believe that you could have seized the item or items under any search warrant that you could have obtained or any other search power that you could have exercised;
- (c) to use any assistance that is reasonable in the circumstances;
- (d) to use force in respect of any property that is reasonable in the circumstances to enter or break open ( or access any area within the specified place for the purposes of carrying out the search and any lawful seizure;
- (e) to detain any person at the place for the purposes of determining whether there is any connection between that person and the object of the search, if that person:
  - (i) is at the place at the commencement of the search; or
  - (ii) arrives at the place while the search is being carried out.
- (f) to search any person who:
  - (i) is found at the place; or
  - (ii) arrives at the place;if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the specified evidential material is on that person.

5. The power to enter and search pursuant to this warrant may be exercised on 1 occasion within 14 days from the date of issue.

6. This warrant is issued subject to the following conditions:
